Invitation

The authorities of the Institute of Russian Language, Warsaw University, would like to invite you to take part in an International Scientific Conference on:

The works of A. P. Chekhov today

Which will take place on 19 and 20 March, 2004, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the Writer's death.

The Conference is organized jointly by the Institute of Russian Studies, J.G. Herder Foundation (Germany) and the Chekhov Committee of the Russian Academy of Sciences

Suggested range of topics:
- new approaches to interpretation of the prose and drama works of A.P. Chekhov
- intertextuality in the works of A.P. Chekhov
- reception of works by A.P. Chekhov at the turn of the 21st century

Conference languages: Russian, Polish, German and English

The deadline for sending application forms and proposed subjects of papers (indicating the language): 14 January, 2004

Each speaker will have 20 minutes to deliver his/her paper (+10 min. discussion)

The proceedings will be published in a separate monograph.

More detailed information will be available later after application forms have been sent in.

Yours faithfully,

Chairman
of the Organizing Committee
Director of the Institute of Russian Studies
Prof. Alicja Wołodźko-Butkiewicz, Dr hab.
Warsaw 14 Nov 2003